

WHAT IS JFF?

Joining Forces for Families (JFF) is a community based, voluntary program that works together with local partners to assist families. The goal of JFF is to support children and families so that they can be successful in school, at home, and in the community. JFF sites and teams vary, so please contact the office closest to you to inquire about specific resources and services.

WHAT DOES JFF DO?

JFF Community Social Workers work with local stakeholders and resources to provide direct services to residents, develop collaborative programs to address areas of need, and advocate for people on an individual and system level.

JFF teams work to meet the needs of families through creative problem solving, advocacy, and resource connection. This may include helping with basic needs such as housing, food, employment, and clothing. JFF also works with communities to create safer and healthier places to live.

JFF SERVICES

Every JFF office has a Community Social Worker who offers:

- Problem solving
- Advocacy
- Resource Referral

Also, some JFF offices may offer additional resources and services to address other needs. These may include the following areas:

- Food
- Clothing
- Health
- Legal Issues
- Housing
- Employment
- Early Childhood
- Youth and Families
- Mental Health
- Drug and Alcohol

Application assistance for:

- BadgerCare
